

Equation Overview

Prism's equation[®] ASP is a web-based application that helps our customers implement, maintain, document and improve business, compliance and certification management systems.

Equation[®] ASP can be provided as a stand-alone technology solution, or integrated with our Consulting Services to establish, implement and maintain your business management system.

Equation[®] ASP:

- Is highly secure with password, firewall, encryption, and back up protection.
- Comes pre-configured for easy start up and is highly configurable to allow maximum flexibility and customization.
- Is easy to use and can be implemented with minimal administrator and user training.
- Includes customer support and periodic upgrades.

Equation[®] ASP contains a full range of modules to meet you business management needs:

- Document Control
- Project Management
- Corrective Action/Improvement
- Data Collection
- Internal Audits
- Customer Relationship Management
- Communications
- Training
- Ready Track Incident Reporting